St. Andrew's Anglican Church

Sunday • August 19, 2012

Scott and Silvia Deaver, friends of Fr. Ric and Val Bowser from Torino, Italy, spoke with St. Andrew's children last Sunday about their experiences as discipleship trainers with Youth With A Mission (YWAM), and mission trips they have been on in countries including Chile and Brazil. Scott, a linguist, shared with the children the Gospel message in five languages. Their talk was part of the summer C'MON ("Children's Mission Opportunities Nearby") program designed by Val, our Children's Ministry coordinator.

Dave Cook Memorial Brats Bash this Thursday!

The Annual Dave Cook Memorial Brats Party for men and boys will be Thursday, August 23. This year, for the first time, the event will be held on the grounds of the Parish House at the church. The festivities begin at 5 p.m., with the first food service shortly thereafter. We will serve food until either 7:30, or the time it runs out. So come whenever it is convenient for you.

Some beverages will be provided, but feel free to bring your own. Dress casually, and remember, the Brats Bash is open to all men and boys of the parish, and you are welcome to bring friends from outside the parish as well. The only thing we ask is that you sign up so we'll know how many are attending

Preliminary Harvest Festival plans announced

Plans for the annual Harvest Festival — set for Saturday, Oct. 13 — are underway! One again, we'll be starting the day with a Rummage Sale, and this year plan to add a Farmer's Market to the mix. The afternoon activities will include a hayride, pumpkin "picking" and decorating, and food, including grilled hot dogs, popcorn and s'mores over an open fire.

Rummage Sale — September drop-off times for the Rummage Sale will be announced next week. This year, drop-offs will end the Sunday prior to the sale, to give our volunteers plenty of time to sort and price merchandise.

Welcome baby Mia!

Our seminarian, Caleb Evans, and wife Alane, welcomed the birth this past Wednesday, August 15, of their daughter, Mia Grace. Mia weighed 8 pounds, 5 ounces, and was 21 inches long at birth. Mother and baby are doing well, and Caleb and Alane report that, "We're super excited!" Congratulations, Caleb and Alane, and welcome to our world, baby Mia! This is an exciting year for the Evans family. In addition to the birth of their daughter, Caleb — who is in his second year at the Nashotah House seminary in Wisconsin — will be ordained to the transitional diaconate later this year.

Remember to mark you calendar for the St. Andrew's Family Extravaganza and Traveling Medicine Show, which be held Saturday, Sept. 29 at 2 p.m. at the church.
