St. Andrew's Anglican Church

Sunday • August 20, 2017

Many of our Young Saints returned to school this past week. As they wind down their summer session of Sunday School, they're looking forward to Rally Day on Sept. 10, which will usher in a new term for our "Grow in Faith" discipleship hour for toddlers through adults. Pictured here are teacher Ana Grum and some of our Young Saints.

Come and See

Rally Day on Sept. 10, will feature something old — the return of Chris Cakes and their famous "flying flapjacks" — and something new — "Bring a Friend to Church" Sunday. We're asking everyone to invite a friend to "Come and See" how God is working in our midst. Postcard invitations are available at the Information Desk today, and we'll post an electronic invitation on our Facebook page (facebook.com/standrewsanglican) and our website (standrewspolaris.org) this week. See next week's edition of "The Net" and our website for all the details!

Dave Cook Memorial Brats Bash Sept 7

The annual Brotherhood of St. Andrew's annual Dave Cook Memorial Brats Bash will Thursday, Sept. 7, on the lawn between the Parish House and the church. Festivities commence at 5 p.m. and food will be served from around 5:30 until our supply (or the chef!) is exhausted.

We are having the Bash in September in hopes that more can attend since August is proving to be so busy with back-to-school activities and late vacations. All men and boys of the parish are invited. Please feel free to Please turn to back

Rummage Sale drop-offs begin Sept. 2

The 7th Annual St. Andrew's Harvest Festival is just a month away, on Saturday, Sept. 30, and we're looking to make this year's event bigger and better than ever! We'll begin the day at 9 a.m. with our famous Rummage Sale, and are now accepting donations of household items, furniture, electronics, toys, etc. that are in good, working condition. You may drop items off at the garage immediately behind the Parish House on these dates: Saturday Please turn to the inside

SALT gathering postponed until Sept. 24

We know that the start of school and end of summer is a busy time for many. Because we want to give ministries time to evaluate the goals they set at last year's St. Andrew's Leadership Touchstone (SALT) gathering and develop their goals for the coming year, we've postponed our annual SALT conference from next Sunday to Sunday, Sept. 24. We're asking ministry leaders to gather with your teams between now and then and come prepared to share your evaluations and new goals at that time. Please turn to the inside

Prayers for the Church

Anglican Cycle of Prayer: Following the Anglican Cycle of Prayer, please pray for Bishop Prince Singh and the clergy and people of the Diocese of Rochester, one of the 109 dioceses in The Episcopal Church; and for Bishop James Langstaff and the clergy and people of the Diocese of Rochester, one of the 42 dioceses in The Church of England.

The Diocese of Rochester (USA) was formed in 1931 by the division of the Diocese of Western New York. Some of the churches inherited by the then new diocese had been in existence for more than 100 years. It now includes 46 parishes in large cities, small country towns, and rural areas. Earlier this year, the diocese announced that church attendance had grown (by 1.3 percent) for the first time in two decades.

The Diocese of Rochester (England) was founded in 604, the same year that the Diocese of London was formed. As far as dioceses are concerned, only the Diocese of Canterbury is older in the Church of England (some individual churches are hundreds of years older). The diocese is so close to London that the diocesan boundaries include two of the boroughs of London. The diocese now has 268 churches in both rural and urban areas and more than 500 licensed lay leaders.

Education is cited by the diocese as being at the core of its mission and 26,200 children are taught in church-run schools, with more schools under construction. The diocese also promotes/runs many social service and community projects, including a large ministry for those suffering from dementia. There are at least two convents of Anglican nuns in the diocese.

For both dioceses, please pray especially for evangelism, outreach to youth, and vocations.

Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes Cycle of Prayer: Please pray for Fr. Dan Conley, OSM, and the people of St. Mathews, Nashville, Ohio.

Parish Cycle of Prayer: Please pray for Alan and Kathy Seitz; Bob and Alex Seyerle; and our children and youth as they begin the new school year.

Encouragement for your prayer time with God

"There are moments when, whatever be the attitude of the body, the soul is on its knees." (Victor Hugo. www.goodreads.com/quotes/16640.)

" 'But the tax collector stood at a distance. He would not even look up to heaven, but beat his breast and said, 'God, have mercy on me a sinner.' " (Luke 19:13) — From the St. Andrew's Prayer Ministries Team

In addition to this follow-up, we'll focus a on feedback from the Annual Meeting and Lenten series and look at ways to connect with one another and welcome others into our ministries, our church, and our lives.

Brats Bash

The only thing we ask is that you acknowledge on the sign-up sheet the number of folks in your party so that we can purchase the proper amount of supplies. Sign-up sheets will be available in the church beginning on August 13.

As usual we will have brats, hot dogs, baked beans and all the trimmings. The dinner is free, but we will be taking up a donation to help pay for the food ... if you are so inclined. Although we will supply soft drinks and water, please feel free to BYOB.

If you have any questions please contact Ed Summers at 614-371-1649 or see any member of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew.
