

Psalm 8

O Lord our Governor, how excellent is your Name in all the world; *
you have set your glory above the heavens!

Out of the mouth of babes and infants you have ordained strength,
because of your enemies; *
that you might still the enemy and the avenger.

When I consider your heavens, even the works of your fingers; *
the moon and the stars, which you have ordained.

What is man, that you are mindful of him; *
the son of man, that you visit him?

You made him lower than the angels, *
to crown him with glory and honor.

You made him to have dominion over the works of your hands; *
and you have put all things in subjection under his feet;

All sheep and oxen, *
even the beasts of the field;

The birds of the air, and the fishes of the sea; *
and whatsoever walks through the paths of the seas.

O Lord our Governor, *
how excellent is your Name in all the world!
