Prayers for the Church

Anglican Church in North America: Bishop Derek Jones and the clergy, religious, and people of the Special Jurisdiction of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy, one of the 20 dioceses in the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA).

Under the oversight of the Bishop of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy, the Special Jurisdiction of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy (JAFC) supports the endorsement and care of chaplains serving in the United States military, federal and local government, hospital and hospice, law enforcement and other vocational and volunteer chaplains serving their communities. The diocese is the endorsing agency and canonical residence for professional chaplains in the Anglican Church in North America (ACNA) and partners with many other ministries to help the church spread the Gospel of Jesus Christ. (Copied from the website.)

The JAFC began as the Deanery of the Chaplaincy of the Convocation of Confessing Anglicans in North America, later becoming the Diocese of the Armed Forces and Chaplaincy before becoming the JAFC in June 2014. The JAFC includes 18 chaplain-led parishes in 15 states plus two parishes in the United Kingdom, one in Japan, and one in Guatemala.

The JAFC sponsors a religious community, the Community of the Order of St. Martin of Tours (St. Martin is known as the “father of chaplaincy”). The community includes married and single men and women who remain laity and dedicate their lives to service as chaplains. The JAFC also sponsors the Centurion Project, an intense 24-session, four-day retreat program addressing post-traumatic stress, combat and operational stress, and moral injury. In addition, the JAFC sponsors the Broken Chalice Prison Ministry and the latter sponsors the Manhood Program, designed for helping fatherless males become Christian men. The Manhood Program is now present in six federal prisons, with plans to expand to four more. Further, the JAFC operates a monthly 30 minute radio program.

Last month, two JAFC chaplains graduated with the highest honors, in the first and second positions in their class, from the demanding six-month Army Chaplains Captains Career Course in Fort Jackson, S.C.

Please pray especially for all the chaplains and all those to whom they minister in the Armed Forces, in prisons, and in hospitals.

Anglican Diocese of the Great Lakes: Fr. David Harnish and the people of All Saints Anglican Church, Rochester, N.Y.; and the Rev. Andrea Orchard and the people of 62:12 Ministries, Wadsworth, Ohio.

Parish Cycle of Prayer: Dan and Christine Brill; Rick, Kerri, Evan, and Emily Brock; the Sunday Morning Adult Forum; and our Fellowship Ministries.

Encouragement for your prayer time with God

In the new year, we want to embrace new habits, and let go of old ones. Can you let go of greedy desires to let God do his work in you? “Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires.” (Galatians 5:24) “The greedy stir up conflict, but those who trust in the Lord will prosper.” (Proverbs 28:25).9:6-7a)

Altar flower sign-ups

Would you like to place flowers at the altar to honor the memory of a loved one, or to celebrate a special event such as a birthday or anniversary? If so, simply check the sign-up board in the Gathering Area to make sure the date on which you’d like to contribute flowers is available, and write your name, along with the information you’d like to appear in the bulletin, next to the date. You should sign up at least a week in advance to assure that the flowers are delivered in time.

A suggested donation to cover the cost of flowers is $50, but other amounts are also welcome. Please make checks payable to St. Andrew’s

Financial Peace University begins Jan. 7 at St. Andrew's

Start the New Year off right, and experience financial peace in 2018!

St. Andrew's is pleased to once again be hosting the Financial Peace University, beginning this Sunday, Jan. 7, at 6 p.m. FPU is a nine-week curriculum created by Dave Ramsey, and will be facilitated by St. Andrew's parishioner Ryan Weiser, CFP®.

Millions of people have gone through Dave Ramsey's Financial Peace University (FPU) and learned God's ways of handling money. They've worked a plan, rewritten their stories, and changed their futures.

The course incorporates small group discussions that help encourage accountability and discipleship. Groups meet once a week for 90 minutes, and the course is just as fun as it is practical!

Go to fpucentral.com/classes/1051022/registration to sign up today!

Registration is required and course materials must be purchased. Please contact Rachel Cherubini, parish business manager, at 740-548-5112 or rcherubini@standrewspolaris.org for additional details.

Winter weather notice

Jack Frost has made his way to Central Ohio, and it's cold out there! Please remember to check our website before heading out for events and activities at the church if weather conditions are deteriorating, if roads are in poor driving condition or if there are snow emergencies in Delaware or Franklin counties. (Please note that all events and activities at the church are canceled if there is a Level 3 snow emergency in Delaware County and/or Orange Township.)

If a cancellation affects a majority of the congregation, we will also send a parish-wide e-mail. Church service cancellations will also be posted on local TV stations.

shopping day the following Tuesday.

To volunteer or to provide food please contact Diane Bobay at 614-846-6921 or bobayfamily@att.net or Marty Scott at 614-284-0182 or mscott@standrewspolaris.org, or sign up at church. Signup sheets will be available on Jan. 6 and 7, and Jan. 13 and 14 in the Narthex.

The Common Ground Free Store welcomes the community to share in God's love and gifts by providing free clothing, household goods, books, toys and more to all in need, regardless of their situation. There are no income requirements or guidelines to meet. The store's philosophy is that everyone is on "common ground."

When St. Andrew's serve at Common Ground, we not only

Important electronic giving announcement

We want to remind you, as announced in the 2018 stewardship brochure, that St. Andrew's discontinued our affiliation with E-Giving, a third-party payment service, as of Dec. 31.

Most banks now allow their customers to set up automatic payments in advance on a recurring schedule, such as weekly, bi-weekly or monthly, at no cost to you or the church. We encourage parishioners who have been taking advantage of E-Giving to instead make electronic payments through your bank.

Discontinuing E-Giving will save the parish $1,200 annually in fees charged for automated bank withdrawals and credit card transactions.

Brotherhood, Tuesday Women's Bible Study resume Jan. 16

After a break during the holidays, both the Brotherhood of St. Andrew and the Tuesday Women's Bible Study will resume their regular meetings on Tuesday, Jan. 16.

The Brotherhood meets on the first and third Tuesdays of the month at 7:30 p.m. at the Parish House. All men and boys of the parish are welcome.

The Women's Bible Study group meets on the first and third Tuesdays from 9:30 to 11 a.m., also at the Parish House. The group will be starting a new study in January, so this is a great time to join them!

provide food for shoppers to have a nutritious meal, but also staff the kitchen, check-in, hospitality, and check-out area, and help with sorting clothes and stocking racks and shelves.

The store, located at 193 E. Central Ave., Delaware, is open Tuesdays, from 6 to 9 p.m.; Wednesdays, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.; Thursdays, from 6 to 9 p.m.; and Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Help is always needed on these days, as well as on our regular day of service
