

Psalm 25:1-14

Unto you, O LORD, will I lift up my soul; my God,
I have put my trust in you; *

O let me not be ashamed, neither let my enemies triumph
over me.

For all those who hope in you shall not be ashamed, *
but those who deal untruly shall be put to confusion.

Show me your ways, O Lord, *
and teach me your paths.

Lead me forth in your truth and teach me, *
for you are the God of my salvation; in you has been my hope all the day long.

Call to remembrance, O Lord, your tender mercies, *
and your loving-kindnesses, which have been from of old.

O remember not the sins and offenses of my youth, *
but according to your mercy think on me, O Lord, in your goodness.

Gracious and righteous is the Lord; *
therefore will he teach sinners in the way.

Those who are meek shall he guide in judgment, *
and those who are gentle shall he teach his way.

All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth *
to those who keep his covenant and his testimonies.

For your Name's sake, O Lord, *
forgive my sin, for it is great.

Who is the one who fears the Lord? *

He shall teach him in the way that he shall choose.

He shall dwell at ease, *

and his seed shall inherit the land.

The Lord reveals his secret counsel to those who fear him, *

and he will show them his covenant.

My eyes are ever looking to the Lord, *

for he shall pluck my feet out of the net.
