

Psalm 46

God is our refuge and strength, *
a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, *
and though the hills be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though its waters rage and swell, *
and though the mountains shake at its tempest.

There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
the holy dwelling place of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her; therefore she shall not be moved. *
God shall help her at the break of day.

The nations are in an uproar, and the kingdoms are moved, *
but God has lifted his voice, and the earth shall melt away.

The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our refuge.

O come and behold the works of the LORD, *
what devastations he has brought upon the earth.

He makes wars to cease in all the world; *
he breaks the bow, and shatters the spear, and burns the chariots in the fire.

“Be still then and know that I am God; *
I will be exalted among the nations, and I will be exalted in the earth.”

The LORD of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our refuge.
