The Dismissal

Sue McKeown (pictured above), along with Bonnie Freeman and Judy Baird, met a week ago Thursday to return hymnals and copies of the Book of Common Prayer to the chair racks in the Sanctuary after they were removed last June as part of our COVID-19 precautions. The trio also affixed bookplates in the prayer books to indicate those given by parishioners in memory of or in honor of loved ones.

Notice something different about this week's service bulletin? Pentecost brings the long-awaited return of congregational singing—something that many of you have been asking about for some time—as we segue into a more normal rhythm of worship. Watch for more Pentecost fun Sunday as we celebrate the birthday of the Church! And remember to wear red to church this weekend!

Pentecost: Come Holy Spirit

By Fr. Ron Baird

The Feast of Pentecost is so named because it comes 50 days after Easter. "Pente" is the Latin word for "five," as in pentagram, thus Pentecost — the feast of 50 days.

Pentecost is often called the birthday of the Church because it was on Pentecost that God sent the Holy Spirit upon the disciples. If you recall, Jesus promised to send the Counselor to be with his followers before he ascended into Heaven. Ten days later the Holy Spirit descended upon them as "Tongues of Fire." They began with fervor to preach, telling everyone of the Good News of what God had done in Jesus Christ!

People of various countries and languages were able to hear and understand the Gospel, even though the disciples were uneducated men who did not know any language other than their own. Upon hearing the ruckus they were creating, the priests of the Temple, thinking they were drunk, ordered them to desist from disturbing the peace

They responded that they surely were not drunk. It was only 9 o'clock in the morning! And

Registration now open for Harvest Festival vendors

The 2021 Harvest Festival is set for Saturday, Oct. 2, and registration for vendors is open! The registration fee for a 10'x10' space will be the same as in past years—$25 before August 1, and $35 after. The fee will be waived if the vendor donates a gift basket valued at $25 or more for our basket raffle.

Participants will have the advantage of publicity in local newspapers, on our website and social media, and everywhere our Harvest Festival is advertised.

For more information, or to receive a vendor registration form, please contact Minna Varkey at mvarkey@standrewspolaris.org. You may also register online by clicking here.

With fairs and festival poised to make a comeback this summer we'll also be making information cards available to our members who may be attending such events to pass out to their favorite vendors. Watch for those at the Information Desk within the next several weeks.

Pentecost

they proceeded to tell of the Gospel, emboldened by the presence of the Holy Spirit in their hearts and lives.

The author of Acts tell us that about 3,000 people were baptized that day. What a joyous beginning for the Kingdom of God!

Today we gather to celebrate this great feast of Pentecost. It is accepted as one of the five great feasts of the Church, along with Easter, Christmas, Epiphany and All Saints Day. Although it doesn't often get the attention that Easter or Christmas get, we should make every effort to celebrate it with the same devotion and fervor. It is the feast of God's gift of the Holy Spirit, to the disciples 2,000 years ago, and to us today!
